SCRIPTURE.

Isaiah 54:1-8.

Sing, O barren, that thou didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, that thou didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord.

Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes: For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

Fear not, for thou shalt not be ashamed; neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more: For thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall be called.

For the Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am engaged to be married and am 18 years of age. Do you think I am too young to get married?

(2) My fiancé and I have had several misunderstandings of late and he makes me take all the blame for everything. I do not like this. What shall I do?

(3) He says he loves me and that he is not jealous. Nevertheless when he hears of my getting letters or attentions from other fellows he is angry. Why is he angry if jealousy does not exist?

(4) Is a diamond always best for an engagement ring?

(5) How often should you write to your fiancé?

(6) Is twice a week too often?

BLUE EYES.

(1) You are very young. Whether you are too young depends upon circumstances.

(2) Refuse to take the blame when it is not your fault.

(3) Caution would make him rebel against your receiving attentions from other men. He has a right to ask you to give up entirely all other men.

(4) The stone which can best be afforded is often chosen.

(5) As often as you want to and think it is best to write.

(6) No.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a young girl of 18 and I am in love with a young man of 23. I met him at a dance a long time ago. He does not speak to me. How can I get him to speak to me?

(2) Is it all right for a girl of 18 to go to a dance and stay out late and come home every time with a different fellow?

(3) It would be cheap to try any way to get him to speak to you.

(4) A girl should not go to a dance unless accompanied by a boy or chaperoned (by her parents, for instance).

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am almost thirty years old and was married when very young to a man several years older than myself. We had children and he left me. I found good homes for all but one of them. For two years I have been going with a business man and am wearing a diamond engagement ring. We are to be married during the holidays. I think a great deal of him and want a home for my baby who is now old enough to go to school. We have had no words in two years until today, when we were talking about an old sweetheart of his, a married woman. He said, "If that little girl ever needs anything I will help her." I have been working at his store from early morning until late at night, from 8:30 a. m. until 10:30 p. m., for a year, and doing everything to lessen expenses. Please tell me if I were right in getting angry at his remark? R. F. S.

His remark showed the true generosity of his heart. It ought to make you feel that anyone so kind will be a good father to your child.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I have warts all over my hand. Could you please tell me how to get rid of them? (2) I am 15 years old. Am I too young to go with girls?

(3) The girl that I go with is 12. Is she too young for me? A LOVER.

(1) Nitric acid will remove warts. Be very careful not to let it touch anything but the wart, and let some older person help you apply it.

(2) You are not too young to have them for friends, but you are too young to go with them or consider yourself a "lover."

(3) She is too young to go with a boy.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Can you tell me where one can sell photographs, which enlarged would do for magazine covers and that sort of thing? I have a photograph with a very original pose of a small child and would like to dispose of it in this way if possible. GFC.

Send it to some magazine publishing company that uses photographs for covers and ask them to use it or return it. Enclose stamps for its return.
